Mainichi Shinbun, 11 March 2006

41 Participants from 26 countries are invited to a workshop on World Heritage Sites
Opening tomorrow at the UNITAR Hiroshima Office

From 12th to 17th the United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR) Hiroshima Office is holding a workshop on World Heritage Sites, inviting 41 participants who are in charge of World Heritage from 26 countries, including Afghanistan and Iraq. On the 16th, it will hold a roundtable in the Hiroshima Peace Memorial Hall. Activities of the UNITAR Hiroshima office include teaching public administration system to government officials from developing countries. In this workshop, participants will learn how to manage World Heritage Sites. A roundtable focusing on the place that the World Heritage Sites have in the town development of Hiroshima will be held from 5:30 pm to 7 pm. Those wishing to participate should apply to UNITAR Hiroshima Office by the 15th (082-511-2424).