The representatives of Afghanistan women’s soccer team visited the Hiroshima City in September at the invitation of the United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR) Hiroshima Office. The team players learned about women’s social participation and the process of building peaceful society through this sport. Even though Afghanistan team had not enough opportunity to practice, they tried their best in this friendly match with Angeviolet Hiroshima. Hiroshima citizens were so encouraged by the play of Afghanistan team and wished no more wars in the world.

UNITAR Hiroshima Office held the Afghanistan training workshop by inviting women soccer players and coach to Hiroshima during this September. By visiting the atomic bomb museum and exposure testimony, they learned about the reconstruction form the horrors of war comparing the situation in Afghanistan. They also experienced Japanese culture with high school students. In addition, they had a lecture of leadership and watched the match of Japanese pro sports teams. It was grateful for them to feel the tight ties between sport and peace building.
