Okee Christopher George ABDALLAH

Okee Christopher George Abdallah is an instructor in the Ministry of Labour, Public Service and Human Resource Development. He graduated in Technical Education in 2005.

John Pitya Luka AGIDEO

John Pitya Luka Agideo is working as an Architect and Project Assistant in the Ministry of Lands, Housing and Physical Planning. He has graduated with Diploma degree in Architecture from Juba University, Sudan. He has done three courses in Construction Project Management from Necat Engineering College, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia.

Gabriel Deng AKOT DENG

Gabriel Deng Akot Deng graduated from Khartoum University with B.A degree in Geography and Mass Communication. He also has a Diploma in International Relations from Bahri University. He is currently serving as a Diplomat in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation, and has experienced various training and courses abroad, including in Holland, Belgium and Germany.

Emmanuel Ayume BENJAMIN

Emmanuel Ayume Benjamin is in charge of the Head of Diplomatic Affairs at the Office of the President. He has experience of working at the Head Consular Section Mission in Brussels. He worked in Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Juba. He graduated with MS in Educational and Training System Design from Twente University and has obtained B.ED (SC) degree from University of Juba. He completed his GCE at the University of London.

Michael Deng Mayen BOL

Michael Deng Mayen Bol graduated in 2013 with a Bachelor degree in Sport Science and Management from Ndejje University of Uganda. He has worked in the Ministry of Youth, Culture and Sports from 2006 to 2015, and is currently working as a sports trainer.

Marial Luk Lueth DUANY

Marial Luk Lueth Duany graduated with a Bachelor degree in Teacher Education from Kyambogo University, Uganda. He has obtained a certificate in Education Management and Administration from KCA university of Nairobi, Kenya. He was engaged in Associateship in Teacher Education from 2006-2008 at Kyambogo University, Kampala Uganda. He has been working as a Deputy Director in the Ministry of Education. His works includes planning and implementation of departmental activities, teacher professional development, liaising with different partners to supplement government efforts in the education sector.
Betty Silmo Simaya DUKU
Betty Silmo Simaya Duku graduated with a Diploma in Public and Environmental Health. She currently works as a Public Health Officer in Juba City Council – CES.

John Reech Jurkuch GAK
John Reech Jurkuch Gak holds a Bachelor degree in Finance and Banking, and a Diploma in Business Management. He is affiliated with the Human Resource Training Centre (MOLPSHRD) and with the National Transformational Leaders Institute (NTLI), MGCSW and University of Juba Program. He has worked as Deputy Director Finance, and Acting Director for Administration and Finance. He is currently working as a focal point person for social protection in South Sudan.

Grace John Kenyi GERI
Grace John Kenyi Geri holds a Diploma in Community Studies and Rural Development from Juba University. She is currently working as a Program Assistant for Advocacy and Lobby in Community Empowerment for Progress Organization (CEPO). She is the chairperson for the youth group national platform for peace and reconciliation. She has experience managing project such as UN Women project on empowering war affected women and girls and projects of enhancing non state actors’ capacity for development in South Sudan.

Zakia Musa KUNDA
Zakia Musa Kunda holds a Diploma in Community Development from Kenya Institute of Social Work. She has been working as non-violence and gender-based violence trainer at the Organization for Non-Violence and Development (ONAD) since 2012. She also works as a counsellor and peace-building mobilizer.

Morris Loro Morbe LADU
Morris Loro Morbe Ladu graduated with a diploma from the University of Juba, Sudan. He joined the Department of Agriculture, Education and Training under the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry, Cooperative and Rural Development as an Assistant Inspector in 2006 and was promoted to Inspector in 2012.

Gaspren Moyi LIME
Gaspren Moyi Lime graduated with a Diploma in Engineering and Architecture from Juba University, Sudan. He is currently working as a Broadcasting Engineer in the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting.
FELLOW PROFILES - Listed in alphabetical order by surname

UNITAR South Sudan Fellowship Programme
2015 Cycle

Mading Apiu LOK
Mading Apiu Lok holds a Master degree in Science-Capacity and Development and Extension from Guelph University, Ontario. He worked in the Settlement and Integration Service Organization (SISO) in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada for four years, after volunteering for two years. He currently is Acting Director General for Policy Analysis and Research in the Ministry of Cabinet Affairs, where he is responsible for analysing the proposals from different line ministries, including the Governance Cluster, Economic Cluster, or Service and Capacity Development Cluster.

Jacob Mau Majok LOREECH
Jacob Mau Majok Loreech is a student of the 4th grade in the College of Natural Resources, where he began in 1994. He is currently a Clerk in the Ministry of Interior. He has previously worked with the UN in Western Bhor- eighazal state.

Christina Pita LUKUDU
Christina Pita Lukudu graduated with Bachelor LLB from Khartoum University. She acquired her Bar Examination Certificate from the Bar Association of Khartoum, Sudan. She is working as a legal Practitioner, Drafter and Prosecutor in the National Ministry of Justice, Sudan. She has been working on human rights issues, especially for women and child rights. She has been working as an Investigator and Drafter on domestic violence and other violence against women and in legislative drafting with a specific focus on gender sensitive legislation for more than 6 years.

Lino Arkanjelo MARITIA
Lino Arkanjelo Maritia graduated with a Diploma degree in Adult Education from the University of Juba. He is working as Senior Inspector for logistic and procurement in the Ministry of Humanitarian Affairs and Disaster Management.

Rehema Siama Guwo MONOJA
Rehema Siama Guwo Monoja graduated with a M.A. in Communication Studies from Nairobi University, Kenya and she holds a B.A. in English literature. She has been working as a Program Director in Eye Radio/Eye media since 2013.

Vicky Valente Achaya OKENG
Vicky Valente Achaya Okeng holds a Diploma in Civil Engineering. She has previously worked as a Construction Supervisor, and is currently working with The Health Support Organization (THESO).
Simon Dumo Khamis WURYEM

Simon Dumo Khamis Wuryem completed his Diploma in Public Administration from the School of Management Science in the University of Juba. He is working in Department of Accounts in the Ministry of Finance and Economic and Planning.

Agum Isaac Daniel YWANG

Agum Issac Daniel Ywang graduated with a Diploma degree in Curative and Preventive Medicine from the Health Training Institute, Medani. She has worked as Deputy National Coordinator of Onchocircasis Vulvulus (OV) Control Program in New Sudan Ministry of Health and as the Acting Deputy General for administration and finance in the Ministry of Health. She has experience working with international organisations, including with the International Committee for Red Cross, International Refugee Committee (IRC) in Marial bai, Northern Banher el Gazal state, and UNICEF education section in Nairobi. She is currently Acting Director for safe motherhood in the Ministry of Health.
Mamadou N’Daw

Mamadou N’daw is the RBM and Evaluation Advisor and Team Leader of RBM and M&E Unit of UNDP’s Regional Service Centre for Africa. Prior to joining RSCA, Mr. N’daw has been serving as Coordinator and M&E Specialist of the Programme Quality Assurance and Advocacy Unit in the DRC Country Office. Prior to this, he led the Monitoring and Evaluation Unit in the DRC CO (2012 to 2014). From 2009 to 2012, he was the Head of the M&E Unit for the Common Humanitarian Fund, also in the DRC CO. Mr. N’daw served as Planning, Monitoring, Evaluation and Public Investment Specialist with UNDP CO in the Central African Republic (2007 – 2009).

Hideaki Shinoda

Hideaki Shinoda is a Professor at the Graduate School of Global Studies, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies. Prof. Shinoda is the Director of the Hiroshima Peacebuilders Center (HPC). His research has focused on theory and practice of peace building and conflict resolution. He has held various teaching positions at Hiroshima University’s Institute for Peace Science, Utsunomiya University, Keele University and the London School of Economics and Political Science. Publications include Kokkashugi to iu shisō (The Ideology of Nationalism), which received the 2012 Suntory Prize for social sciences and humanities and Heiwa kōchiku to hō no shihai (Peace Building and the Rule of Law), which received the 2003 Osanagi Jirō Rondan Award. Prof. Shinoda received both his B.A and M.A. in Political Science at Waseda University in Tokyo, Japan. Prof. Shinoda holds a Ph.D. in International Relations from the London School of Economics and Political Science (the University of London).

Lucy Wanjiru

Lucy Wanjiru is a Partnerships Specialist in the Engagement Initiatives Team in UNDP's Bureau for External Relations and Advocacy. She works on advancing the New Strategic Partnerships agenda and supporting the diversification of UNDP’s funding and partnerships base by engaging with emerging economies and non-state development actors in collaboration with UNDP Bureaux. Previously, Ms. Wanjiru was a gender and environment specialist working on strengthening of partnerships for advocacy, capacity building, and developing new knowledge to ensure that environment and climate change strategies address the needs of poor communities equitably. Her work involved providing technical support environment activities of UNDP and to the Global Gender and Climate Change Alliance, a partnership of over 100 organizations that is supporting the design and implementation of inclusive climate policies and programmes, and financing for environmentally sustainable and socially inclusive economic development. Prior to joining UNDP, Ms. Wanjiru was a socio-economic consultant in the Ministry of Water and Irrigation Reforms in Kenya and worked for over 10 years at the grassroots level as a community mobilizer and trainer in Integrated Water Resources Management with organizations such as the African Medical and Research Foundation and the Swedish International Development Agency. Ms. Wanjiru is a Kenyan national and holds an MA in Sustainable International Development, from the Heller School of social policy and management, Brandeis University (USA) and a BA in Administration and sociology from Moi University (Kenya).
Mihoko KUMAMOTO
Head
UNITED NATIONS INSTITUTE FOR TRAINING AND RESEARCH (UNITAR) Hiroshima Office

Mihoko Kumamoto has over 18 years of professional experience in the development cooperation field and has been with the United Nations for 12 years. Ms. Kumamoto started her career at Kyushu Electric Power Company in Japan where she coordinated training programmes and while there, she discovered that her passion was in helping people to help themselves, specifically through human development and development cooperation. After six years, Ms. Kumamoto left the company and moved to New York to earn her Masters in Economic Development at Columbia University. In 2001, she joined the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), and served its Vietnam Country Office as Junior Professional Officer. In 2003, she moved to the Bureau for Development Programme of UNDP Headquarters in New York and led various signature programmes that promoted the capacity development of institutions and individuals including the Africa Adaptation Programme. In 2011, Ms. Kumamoto worked for UNDP Multi-Country Office for Samoa, the Cook Islands, Niue and Tokelau as Assistant Resident Representative for Crisis Prevention and Recovery, the Environment and Climate Change. After the assignment, she rejoined UNDP Headquarters, and in 2012, Ms. Kumamoto moved to Jakarta to serve UNDP Indonesia as a Senior Advisor. Ms. Kumamoto holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Psychology from West Virginia University and a Master’s Degree in International Affairs from Columbia University. She is a PhD candidate at Kyoto University on climate change and sustainable development.

Berin McKENZIE
Specialist
UNITED NATIONS INSTITUTE FOR TRAINING AND RESEARCH (UNITAR) Hiroshima Office

Berin McKenzie graduated with a B.A. degree in Japanese from New Zealand’s Canterbury University in 1998, and a B.A. (Hons.) and M.A. in International Relations from the Department of Political Studies at Auckland University. His M.A. Thesis examined multilateral initiatives as pursued by Japan in regards to its policy towards the People’s Republic of China. Fluent in Japanese, Mr. McKenzie was employed in a Japanese local government role prior to joining UNITAR in August 2008. Berin manages programme development and implementation, as well as monitoring and evaluation at the UNITAR Hiroshima Office and has also acted as a Mentor to participants in the UNITAR Fellowship for Afghanistan programme. He is also an Association for Talent Development (ATD) Accredited Master Trainer, and Master Instructional Designer.

Shamsul Hadi SHAMS
Training Officer
UNITED NATIONS INSTITUTE FOR TRAINING AND RESEARCH (UNITAR) Hiroshima Office

Shamsul Hadi Shams graduated from Hiroshima University in 2012 and received his PhD in Peace and Co-existence, Developing Science Division. He served as a research assistant conducting research on “Peacebuilding in Afghanistan” from 2009 to 2011 at Hiroshima University. He received his Bachelor’s degree in natural sciences in 2004 from the University of Peshawar, and his Master’s degree in Political Science and International Relations from the International University Islamabad (IIUI), Pakistan, in 2006. His research interests include Afghanistan post 9/11 reconstruction strategy, post-conflict governance, nation/state building processes and conflict resolution. He participated and presented his research in academic conferences in Japan, United States and Canada in the past several years. He joined UNITAR Hiroshima Office in 2012.
Junko SHIMAZU
Coordinating Officer
UNITED NATIONS INSTITUTE FOR TRAINING AND RESEARCH (UNITAR) Hiroshima Office

Junko Shimazu has a B.A. Degree in Arts and Science from Temple University, USA and M.A. Degree in Intercultural Communications from the Graduate School for International Development and Cooperation at Hiroshima University. Prior to joining UNITAR, she worked as an interpreter between Japanese and English for 10 years. Ms. Shimazu joined the UNITAR Hiroshima Office in September 2012.

Francis SCOPAS
Coordinator – Juba Office
UNITED NATIONS INSTITUTE FOR TRAINING AND RESEARCH (UNITAR) Hiroshima Office

Francis Scopas has a B.A. in Rural Development from the University of Juba, and a Master’s in Multicultural and International Education from Oslo University College. Mr. Scopas is the coordinator and key contact officer for the UNITAR Juba Office. He has a deep interest in educational issues and extensive experience in project management and administration, as well as logistic and asset management. He has held positions with the US Embassy in Sudan and Iraq, the British Council in Juba, and with Adam Smith International.

Kaori ITO
Expert
UNITED NATIONS INSTITUTE FOR TRAINING AND RESEARCH (UNITAR) Hiroshima Office

Kaori Ito has studied Japanese law (Constitution, Civil Code and Penal Code), and graduated from Faculty of Law, Kyoto University in 2011. She received her Master’s degree in Politics and Government (Municipal level) from the Graduate School of Government, Kyoto University, in 2013. She worked for two years at Fukuyama Iyo High School before joining Hiroshima Board of Education in 2015. Her responsibilities included to manage budget, teachers as well as clerks’ affairs, and expenses. Her currently responsibility at the department is to renovate education system for high school students. She is seconded to the UNITAR Hiroshima office starting from this April with a one-year assignment.

Nobuaki NISHIKAWA
Expert
UNITED NATIONS INSTITUTE FOR TRAINING AND RESEARCH (UNITAR) Hiroshima Office

Nobuaki Nishikawa has a B.A. Degree in Economics from Soka University. After graduation, he worked as a cram school teacher, teaching English and Maths to high school students for one year, before start working in Hiroshima Prefectural Office in 2012. He worked with Hiroshima Prefectural Centre for Disease Control and Prevention (Hiroshima CDC), with main focus to prevent Tuberculosis in Hiroshima Prefecture. His responsibility included to help patients to apply for the national medical subsidy, compiled statistics on TB, and ran seminars accordingly. He is seconded to the UNITAR Hiroshima Office starting from this April to strengthen the partnership between UNITAR and the Prefectural Offices.
Nigel Gan
Assistant Training Officer
UNITED NATIONS INSTITUTE FOR TRAINING AND RESEARCH (UNITAR) Hiroshima Office

Nigel Gan graduated from the University of Sydney with a Bachelor of Social Sciences in 2009, and completed his Master’s in International Cooperation Studies at Hiroshima University in 2015. He worked for several years at the Department of Justice, Victoria, Australia as an Information Management Advisor, focusing on privacy and freedom of information. Mr. Gan worked at the British Embassy Tokyo in the UK Trade and Investment Department as a Digital Media Consultant and taught English in Japan on the JET Programme prior to joining UNITAR in 2014.

---

Momotaj Begum
Intern
UNITED NATIONS INSTITUTE FOR TRAINING AND RESEARCH (UNITAR) Hiroshima Office

Momotaj Begum has graduated from Hiroshima University in 2015, and received PhD in Cultural and Regional Studies. Currently she is working as a specially appointed researcher in the Graduate School for International Development and Cooperation (IDEC), Hiroshima University. She has been doing research in Social Science for several years and her research specialization covers the broader theme of gender, religion and education. She is focusing on gender and Islam, gender and Islamic movement, education and women empowerment, and social change in South Asia, in particular in Bangladesh. Earlier, she has worked as a journalist in Television and in daily newspaper of Bangladesh.

---

Manni Lu
Intern
UNITED NATIONS INSTITUTE FOR TRAINING AND RESEARCH (UNITAR) Hiroshima Office

Manni Lu graduated in 2013 with a B.A. degree in Japanese Language from Chongqing Normal University, China. Currently Lu is studying Master in economic development policy in the Graduate School for International Development and Cooperation (IDEC), Hiroshima University. She has been doing Internship with the UNITAR Hiroshima Office since October 2015.