Learn Anywhere, Anytime with UNITAR

The Division for Prosperity of the United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR) is pleased to announce its online training courses for 2020. Take advantage of our free and fee-based online courses which offer participants the opportunity to learn current best practices, network with professionals from around the world with similar interests, and gain access to international experts and coaches. Some courses target specific countries, whilst others are global.

Key Reasons to Participate

Our online courses extend beyond mere content to incorporate experiential and collaborative learning through multiple instructional tools and delivery approaches to allow learners to reflect and link concepts with practical solutions. The instructional design and methodologies are adapted around the learning styles of adult learners for maximum accessibility and flexibility. All courses are instructor-moderated by international experts and practitioners with a wealth of practical experience and know-how.

Successful participants receive a Certificate of Completion from UNITAR.

FREE ONLINE TRAINING COURSES

Free online training courses are funded by our partners. These courses are intended for participants from specific country or region. Participation is subject to a selection process taking into consideration several criteria including availability of slots, gender balance and distribution among relevant institutions.
