

2024 YOUTH AMBASSADOR ASIA PACIFIC PROGRAMME

Supporting Asia-Pacific youth in developing their abilities to address international issues and work towards the SDGs

PROGRAMME STRUCTURE

This year's theme is "Local Solutions for Global Challenges: Youth Empowerment and Community Impact." Over 8 weeks, Youth Ambassadors will develop their ideas to combat community problems, attend lectures by experts, work on self-directed capstone projects and be mentored and coached by UNITAR and ITS staff. At the end, participants will receive a UNITAR certificate of completion.

LEARNING GOALS

- Strengthen participant's knowledge on the SDGs, UN system, innovation and entrepreneurship
- Empower participants to launch SDG projects in their local communities

About ITS Education Asia

Our programme partner ITS Education Asia provides flexible learning options to students without access to mainstream schooling. ITS is accredited with UCAS, Pearson, Cambridge, CIOT, IQT, Minerva and more. ITS also serves students who remain in traditional schools but need enhanced learning and support. The non-profit ITS Foundation delivers sustainability education through various programmes and is closely aligned with the UN 2030 Agenda.

About UNITAR

Established in 1963, the United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR) is a principal training arm of the United Nations. We deliver innovative learning solutions to individuals and organizations to enhance global decision-making and support country-level action to shape a better future. In 2023, UNITAR reached 400,985 individuals through in-person seminars and workshops, e-learning and other training-related events. Our alumni include diplomats, government officials, and representatives in the public and private sector.
